

TRUNKS, BONNET BOXES, AND VALISES.

GREAT BARGAINS IN TRUNKS AT

J. H. McCleary's

NATIONAL TRUNK EMPORIUM,

Corner Main and Fourth sts., Louisville, Ky.

I would respectfully invite the attention of merchants and others visiting the city to my large and elegant assortment of TRUNKS, which I am prepared to offer at least twenty-five per cent. lower than any other establishment in the city. My stock embraces a greater variety of Trunks than is kept by any other house in the Western country. Many of the styles are entirely new and cannot be found elsewhere in the city. The trunk both as regards price and quality. The many advantages which I possess over the other houses in the city, such as manufacturing my own boxes, finishing my own leather, importing my own material, enable me to offer my trunks at much lower prices than any other establishment either in this city or Cincinnati. Merchants and others will be consulting their own interests by giving me a call before making their purchases. Orders promptly attended to. [may 26 d&w] J. H. McCleary.

CITY ORDINANCES, &C

AN ORDINANCE
Establishing a Steam Fire Department under a paid system.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the General Council of the City of Louisville, That a Steam Fire Department under a paid system is hereby established, consisting of not more than six companies, to be organized from time to time as the engines are obtained.
Sec. 2. When three or more companies shall have been organized under this ordinance, a chief engineer shall be elected by the General Council, and shall hold his office for the term of one year and until his successor shall be elected and qualified under the provisions of the charter and ordinances of the city of Louisville. He shall give bond with approved security for the faithful discharge of all duties which may hereafter be imposed on him. Said chief shall appoint the pipe directors, privates, and ostlers for each company, subject to removal for any neglect of duty.
Sec. 3. In the event of the chief engineer being unable to perform his duties either by sickness or absence from the city, the Chief of Police shall act in his stead during such inability.
Sec. 4. The companies for said Department shall consist of one engineer, two pipe directors, three privates, and two ostlers.
Sec. 5. The engineers of each company shall be elected by the General Council, when, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, companies are organized, and shall hold their offices for one year from the date of said election and until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall give bond in a like sum and upon the same conditions as are provided for the chief.
Sec. 6. The Engineers, except when on duty at fires, shall be constantly present at the engine-house of their respective company, and shall perform all the duties which are required of Wardens at the engine-houses, under the provision of the Charter and Ordinances of the City of Louisville.
Sec. 7. Until a Chief Engineer shall be elected, the Engineer of each company shall appoint as managers under him, and have control thereof in like manner as is herein provided for the Chief.
Sec. 8. For neglect of duty on the part of the Chief or Company Engineers, the Mayor shall prefer charges against them to the Board of Aldermen, and said charges shall be investigated under the provisions of the Charter with reference to offenses committed by other officers of the city.
Sec. 9. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Chief or Company Engineer prior to the expiration of the term for which they had been respectively elected, the General Council shall fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.
Sec. 10. All persons connected with the Department shall be citizens of the United States, over the age of twenty-one years. The privates herein provided for shall perform such duties as the Engineer may direct.
Sec. 11. The Chief Engineer shall receive as a compensation for his services the sum of twelve hundred dollars per annum; the Company Engineers, each, seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum; the pipe directors, each, three hundred dollars per annum; the privates, each, two hundred and fifty dollars per annum; and the ostlers, each two hundred dollars per annum. All to be paid monthly out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.
Sec. 12. This ordinance shall not be so construed as to dispense with the services of the "United Fire Department of the City of Louisville," as organized under that title.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, September 22.
John Kennedy was arrested on the charge of vagrancy and drunkenness. He is an inoffensive man, and it was thought the workhouse for three months might do him some good.
John Kerr was drunk last night, and, wandering along Marshall street, climbed into the window of a bawdy house. He was chased out, gave the alarm, and was arrested by Officer Weatherford.
Workhouse one month.
Thomas Brown, an employee of the circus, was drunk and had a brickbat in his handkerchief. "Bail in $300 for three months." Elizabeth Porter had again fallen into her bad habits, and was returned to the cave for two months.

SAVING.—The Morning Star, after leaving Jefferson City, Mo., on her way down, encountered one which broke some sixty or two for repairs. The encountered one, which ran up through the starboard guard, demolishing a large part of it.

COL. BENTON.—The St. Louis Republican of Monday says that Col. Benton was summoned to Washington City on Sunday, by dispatches stating that Col. Benton had experienced an unfavorable change in his health, and that his presence was deemed necessary. Col. Benton left in the afternoon train on Sunday, and will doubtless reach Wash-

LYNCH LAW IN LAFAYETTE COUNTY, MISS.—A correspondent of the Lexington Advertiser, writing from Oxford, under date of the 6th inst., says:

Several days since a man by the name of Snyder with the crime of having attempted to facilitate certain negroes to murder several families in the northern portion of Lafayette—sparing from among the members of those families two young females, whom the said Snyder, and his accomplice Smock, went to take to wife, and convey, by force, into a Northern State. For the murder of these families and securing of the young ladies, and for the further consideration of two hundred dollars (which money the negroes were to obtain from the murdered families) Snyder was to conduct the negroes into a free State.

After the arrest, Snyder was brought to Oxford for trial, but as there could be only negative evidence adduced against him, he was not committed to jail by law; yet the citizens being convinced of his guilt, took him from the court house, and conveying him beyond the limits of the corporation, were in the act of enforcing the laws of his honor "Judge Lynch," when they were persuaded to desist. Snyder was conducted to jail to protect him from the violence of the crowd. But last night after dark he was taken from jail, and severely whipped, when, after being promised that he should not be hung, he confessed to the facts above enunciated. I understand he was conducted last night without the State, but doubt if he now be alive. If he is not hung, he should be."

From another source we learn that Snyder has been lodged in jail in a neighboring county to Lafayette, to answer for his offence.

FROM FORT LARAMIE AND UTAH.—We have advices from Fort Laramie and Utah of the 22d of August. Capt.
Van Vleet, of the Q. M. Department, who had been sent forward to Utah in advance of the troops, arrived at Laramie in ten days from Fort Kearney. It was expected that the Tenth Infantry would arrive at that post by the 2d of the present month, and the remainder of the command soon after. Our apprehensions in regard to the expedition are, we are silly to hear, likely to be realized. The troops will be so late that it is feared by old settlers at Fort Laramie that the entire command cannot get to Utah this season.

Col. Sumner has been out, our correspondent says, and as we already know, forty days on twenty days' provisions, in search of the Cheyennes. Our correspondent, who is a discreet observer of what is passing on the frontier, where he has long lived, thinks that the breaking up of the Cheyenne Expedition will embolden the Indians, and make them ten times more troublesome than they have been.

It is represented to us that a great many people from Salt Lake have been met, and they all say that the Mormons are going to give us peace. This is, however, very questionable. One thing is pretty certain—that the road is going to be very unsafe for small parties, unless the Government takes the matter in hand, and prepares itself to thrash every body.

Three trains loaded with provisions had passed Fort Laramie for Utah, and on the 22d another train arrived, bound for the same place.

CAPT. HENDON, U. S. N.—This gentleman, who had the command of the Central America, is well known to the country as well as to the navy, and for the misfortune that has befallen him, the regret will be profound amid a wide circle of admiring friends in all parts of the country.

Capt. Hendon is from Virginia, near Fredericksburg, and has been in the navy from his boyhood—without a blot upon his career as a gentleman or an officer. He must be now about 45 years of age, and in the navy he has been employed continually from his boyhood up to the present time, for his position on the Central America as naval aviator as well as mercantile. He rendered the country gallant service in the Florida war, off the coast and in the lagoons of Florida, and suffered severely in his health from the pestilential miasma of that service.

He was under Commodore Perry during the Mexican war, and off Vera Cruz during the greater part of that war, where, as an officer, for activity, energy, and fearlessness, he was among the very first.
The government of Mr. Polk so highly appreciated his services, that, in looking about for a gallant, efficient, and hardy man to explore the Amazon, they selected him for that dangerous service. He entered South America by the way of Peru, crossing the Andes, came to the sources and branches of the Amazon, and in his bark drifted or rowed down its immense length to Peru, in Brazil, to the delight and amazement of his friends, who, from his long stay upon the upper waters, had almost given him up for lost.

His admirable and instructive report to the Government of this exploration is known to everybody in this country, and it has been read and re-read with like delight in all parts of the world. Congress cheerfully awarded him a gratuity of some eight or ten thousand dollars for his courage, performance, and heroic deeds, and all his trials and difficulties. We had hoped and prayed that he was among the saved—but we see he is not, and he is the last man who would give up or abandon his ship. Now, the loss of such a man is to be deplored, not only by his friends but by his whole country. As a naval officer he never shirked nor avoided a duty, but always courted dangers in war, in climate, and on land, as well as on sea. In every quarter of the globe he has served his country, and in almost every port where our national flag has floated—he has been under it, and in its service.

He leaves a wife and daughter now in this city, and among his relatives is Lieut. Maury, of Washington.—N. Y. Express.

Dr. King's Dispensary.
DR. A. KING, a practitioner of New York for thirty years, and for the last four in this city, has removed his Dispensary to next door to Ward's Exchange, Third street, Louisville, for the treatment of Private Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Syphilis, and all diseases of the skin and other derangements growing out of neglected venereal diseases, and all diseases of the bladder and prostate. He has had extensive and successful experience in the treatment of all these diseases, and can act with confidence. All those who may confide their cases to him may rest assured of having the disease effectually cured and even the difficulties perfectly eradicated from their constitutions.

STRUCTURES of old or recent date effectually cured in a few days by an operation which causes no pain. Where a stricture exists, general derangement of the whole constitution must ensue, a continuance of which will bring on a train of symptoms to be dreaded, and will undermine the constitution, and shorten the life of the patient. It is essential, therefore, that the stricture be removed as soon as possible, and the patient restored to health. The above diseases, and all the consequences growing out of indignity, in many cases, by the destructive habits of intemperate youth, and excessive indulgence of the passions, which undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for either business or society, and causing premature old age.

Persons abroad, by writing and stating their cases, with a fee enclosed (post paid), can have the medicine sent to their address, with necessary directions for using the same.

The strictest secrecy observed in all cases. s17 j&bm

Quaintness, Satire, and Amusement.
JUST PUBLISHED—KNIVES AND FOOLS, or THE FRIENDS OF LONDON; a Satirical Novel of London Life, by E. M. Whitty (The Stranger in Parliament). A handsome 12mo volume, bound in cloth and illustrated.
480 pages. Price $1 25.
Mr. Whitty has of late produced a marked sensation in the literary circles of Great Britain by a series of satirical papers published in the London Times, under the nom de plume of "The Stranger in Parliament," which have gained for him the most enviable notoriety of being one of the most powerful political essayists in Europe and a satirist of great vigor and strength. This, his first complete work, is a SATIRICAL NOVEL of the most brilliant character, combining a very exposed of certain literary and artistic circles in London, together with a story and plot which for quaintness and interest has been compared to the "Christie Johnstone" and "Peg Woffington" of Charles Reade.
